

Singing in Beautiful Places - New Zealand - 2025 with Jane Christie-Johnston

Indicative Itinerary - October 25 to November 2

Saturday, October 25(d)

Participants arrive and check in at our Queenstown Hotel. Then we'll all meet for an overview of the Singing Adventure, accompanied by canapés and drinks. and our first singing workshop. This will be followed by a special dinner, featuring a traditional Māori welcome.

Sunday, October 26 (b,l)

Participants will start the day with a hotel breakfast before attending a morning singing workshop. Following the workshop, we'll head to the TSS Earnslaw cruise on Lake Wakatipu, which includes lunch. Return to hotel or opportunity to explore Queenstown and dinner at own expense.

Monday, October 27 (b,l,d)

After breakfast, participants will enjoy another singing workshop. The afternoon will include an excursion to a local Vineyard, where participants can enjoy wine tasting and lunch. In the evening, we'll return for some free time with dinner at hotel.

Tuesday, October 28 (b,l,d)

Following breakfast, we'll take the Skyline Queenstown gondola ride up to Bob's Peak, offering stunning views and a chance to sing at the top. Lunch will be served at the Stratosfare Restaurant. In the afternoon, we'll depart Queenstown and travel to Te Anau, stopping for sightseeing and singing along the way. After checking in at the hotel in Te Anau, we'll have dinner at a local restaurant.

Singing in Beautiful Places - New Zealand - 2025

Wednesday, October 29 (b,l,d)

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll embark on the Doubtful Sound Cruise, and enjoy lunch and singing while taking in the stunning surroundings. Return to hotel for dinner.

Thursday, October 30 (b,d)

We'll have breakfast at the hotel before departing for Dunedin by bus. The day will include sightseeing commentary, with lunch (at own expense) and singing along the way. We'll check in at the hotel in Dunedin before dinner at a local restaurant.

Friday, October 31 (b, high tea)

After breakfast, the group will head out on a sightseeing tour of Dunedin for the day including a visit to Larnach Castle, where we can sing in the gardens and enjoy high tea. Returning early evening, with dinner at own expense.

Saturday, November 1 (b,d)

We begin the day with breakfast before embarking on the Taieri Gorge Train experience, where we will enjoy scenic views and have lunch on board (available for purchase at the café). Relax before a final group dinner in Dunedin to celebrate the trip.

Sunday, November 2 (b,l)

Following breakfast, we will depart Dunedin and travel back to Queenstown, making stops for lunch, sightseeing, and singing along the way. Upon arrival in Queenstown, participants will be dropped off either in the city or at the airport.

For further information

Sharon 0414 317 950

Pauline 0427 320 118